

Senior Project Officer, Community Engagement

Full time

“Leaders of primary health to diverse communities through partnership and innovation.”

The Western Region Health Centre provides a range of health and community support services and are committed to innovation and quality in all we do.

This exciting position is located within a new team seeking to align the Centre's strategic and value-based commitment to inclusion with the continued development of its local communities and services.

The unit is responsible for community engagement and consumer participation, cultural responsiveness and language services, integrated health promotion and organisational planning and development.

The role is responsible for coordinating the development, implementation and evaluation of a Community Engagement / Consumer Participation Strategy and a Cultural Responsiveness Framework. It will project manage and lead a range of activities that ensure the Centre develops and implements culturally responsive practice models that appropriately meet the needs of diverse communities within the western suburbs of Melbourne.

Applications are sought from suitably qualified community engagement and development professionals who possess exceptional communication, leadership and project management skills, and a demonstrated ability to work sensitively with culturally diverse communities.
