

Indigenous Health Project Worker

Part time, 2 days per week

“To create healthy and connected communities in Melbourne’s West through the delivery of high quality, accessible community and health services.”

The Western Region Health Centre provides a range of health and community support services and are committed to innovation and quality in all we do.

The Community Health (CH) Program incorporates Health Promotion, Allied Health, HACC, Aboriginal Health, HARP Diabetes Programs and specific project management. The program aims to maximise the health and wellbeing of the Maribyrnong community, in the prevention and treatment of illness, and the provision of health promotion initiatives.

This role is for a highly motivated Indigenous person with exceptional organisational skills. The objective of this role is to implement the Growing, Cooking, Sharing Food Together project.

Key aspects of this project are:

- To expand the existing Foodshare program to a self-sufficiency model.
- To further develop the Indigenous community garden at Braybrook.
- To incorporate an Aboriginal Community Kitchen with the Community Garden.

Applications are invited from suitably qualified and experienced people addressing the following areas:

Mandatory

- Current Victorian driver’s licence
- Well developed written and verbal communication skills

Highly Desirable

- Experience in Project Management
- Food handling certificate
- Sound knowledge of community health principles
- Experience in working with Indigenous people from a range of communities
- Basic Computer and Microsoft Office skills
- Knowledge of the Western Region and relevant services

Wages and Conditions: Social and Community Services – Victoria – Award 2000 Award and the Community Health Care (Stand Alone Services) Multi Employer Certified 2005 Agreement. Salary commensurate with experience. Attractive Salary Packaging available.

For a position description please visit our website at www.wrhc.com.au or for further queries, please phone Rebecca McBurnie, HR Assistant on 03 9680 1138.

- current resume
- covering letter
- a separate response to the Key Selection Criteria (located within the position description) - please note that applications will not be considered without this

Applications to be sent to: Jo Southwell via email to jobs@wrhc.com.au

A pre-employment criminal record check is mandatory.

WRHC is an equal opportunity employer.